Hillsboro has justly acquired a reputation for the excellence of her marble work, superior to that of most towns within a radius of 50 miles. This reputation is largely due to the old established firm of Paul Harsh, and Harsh & Son, and is being well maintained by the enterprising new firm of Hanson & Lemon, whose card appears in our columns. They shipped last week a full car load of their work to New Richmond, Clermont county, and are constantly filling orders from Adams, Brown, Clinton, and other neighboring counties. STORY SOLDIER'S GRAVE IN THE COUNTY WHERE PLACED, THE FLAG TO BE KEPT AND BE REVERED EVERY YEAR.

An Earnest Appeal From Post Commanders Matthews, Barrett, Elliott and Carson.

AN EARNEST APPEAL.

From County Posts of the G. A. R.

Hillsboro John M. Barrett Post No. 205, Joe Henry Post No. 303, James R. Elliott Post No. 245, Green Post No. 180.

Grand Army of the Republic, May 15.

The undersigned, representing the above named posts, earnestly request ex-soldiers to see that the grave of every comrade buried in Hillsboro County is properly decorated on Memorial Day, May 30th, of May.

There are doubtless single graves in many portions of the county and some, perhaps, have never been decorated. It may be some are in obscure places. If this be so we trust some soldier knowing of them will not fail this year to pay this tribute of respect to his dead comrade. The appeal is first made to ex-soldiers, whether members of the Grand Army of the Republic or not; but if there be no soldier living in the neighborhood of these single graves, we will not some patriotic citizens perform the sacred duty? Let no soldier's grave in Hillsboro County remain undecorated this year! If possible, let it be done with appropriate ceremonies, but at all events let it be done. We suggest that a neat, small and substantial flag be placed on each grave and there kept during the year, renewing it whenever necessary. If fought in a war worthy of this memorial. To him it was sacred and he was ever ready to offer his life in behalf of his country. We believe this a substantial and a fitting memorial. Let the Memorial Day in this county mean more than it ever has yet.

THE MURPHY ANNIVERSARY.

Two Meetings last Sunday at City Hall.

In spite of the drizzling rain which continued all day last Sunday, the Murphy anniversary meetings at City Hall in the afternoon and evening were well attended and showed that the public interest in the movement has not entirely died out. The afternoon meeting was presided over by Mr. A. W. Thornburg, who apologized for the absence of the speakers expected from abroad, Rev. R. D. Clayton and Hon. H. L. Dickey, both of whom were unable to attend. Rev. Dr. Starr, who presided at the meeting, read a letter from Rev. Mr. Clayton expressing his regret that he could not accept the invitation, not having received it in time to obtain a substitute to fill his pulpit. He added that he never would forget his connection with the "Crusade" and Murphy temperance movements in Hillsboro, especially the former, whose influence had been felt throughout the city.

In the absence of the invited speakers, the Chairman called for volunteer speakers, and the call was responded to by Rev. J. W. Kilae, and Rev. Dr. Starr, who gave an interesting account of the first Murphy anniversary at Hinton, Kentucky, six years ago, where he was stationed as pastor at the time.

THE EVENING MEETING.

Was presided over by Judge J. H. Thompson, who made a feeling and appropriate address, briefly reviewing the history of the Murphy movement in this place, and referring to the great goal it had done in our community. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Starr, who read a letter from Rev. J. P. Lloyd, each of whom made interesting addresses. The regular temperance choir was reinforced by several additions from the choir of the various churches, and furnished excellent music under the leadership of Mr. W. A. Morrow.

Fairfield's Choice.

Leesburg, May 21, 1883.

Ed. News:—The importance of the coming campaign in both the county and state is duly appreciated, and we think properly understood by the Republicans of this locality, and more particularly so by the older members of the party.

The "Old Guard," as you are pleased to call them, the men who voted the ticket in '56, and on through the dark days of our governmental struggle for existence, will still be found on duty. But we had some lessons last year it would be well to study and heed.

The suggestion made in last issue of the News, that James Hesse be our nominee for Treasurer, meets the hearty approval of his old friends in this locality.

By the way, there is Captain D. M. Barrett, of Paint, who has fought a good fight, but has not finished his work by any means, and his many friends in this township would be highly gratified to see him receive the nomination for Representative.

The affairs of the corporation during the past year have been carried on smoothly and well. I believe that no complaint of any department has come to my ears, or, at least, none such as it is necessary to mention.
